

Winsford Managers Report OCTOBER 2014

- Major clear up around Ion Path carried out by Cwac and Thermo. Looks so much better for staff, customers and potential tenants.
- The Cwac car park at the southern entrance now reinforced to prevent occupation by travellers. (Posts need painting)
- Confirmation received that the proposed showmans site is abandoned for road one.
- The third speed activated sign erected on road one/road four junction.
- The fourth sign will be fitted when power supply sourced.
- New LED lights fitted to illuminate street signs which enhance brightness.
- Crimes reported include scrap fridges removed from premises and a dumper truck from Scottish Power site.
- Police requested cctv footage for a couple of traffic incidents.
- CCTV extended to cover roads three and five.
- Anti social incident by trainees on Ion Path now resolved.
- Saint Flooring expand and open retail carpet warehouse on the corner of road two.
- Caravan repair company arrive and depart from Navigation Park.
- On a Sunday morning 25 tyres dumped on Cosmo site.
- Premier Park sold to property company.
- BID to place defibrillators within Rucks and All our Appliances for general use.
- Re planting schedule Oct/Nov beneath entrance signs and at sensory garden.
- Entrance banners to be replaced with new design, lowered and a message with bolder print.
- Autumn bulletin prepared in conjunction with Profile.
- Delivered CIEH training course and Fire Risk Assessment.
- First Aid training provided by third party.
- Henkel hold a safety day.
- Henkel exploring options for new design at entrance to site.
- Post & Column company hold safety seminar for world safety day.
- Barrett trailers continue to generate complaints on road four and two when parked inconsiderately near entrance and junctions.
- Road Five "lorry park" requires managing. Many of those who park overnight have no legitimate business on road five.
- Dewhirst to vacate road five shortly.
- Two new companies, Raindrops Boutique and Access to Training.
- Premier Park ownership change.
- That's all Folks ! Nice knowing you.